Liz Marshall Crawford posted this on her facebook page.

“On January 4, 2019, by a chance encounter, I met a woman named Mimi. I saw her again on January 26, and the next day she asked me to join her on an upcoming mission trip to Ethiopia. I could not get her off my mind and heart, so after convincing my cousin Debbie to join me in this crazy adventure, I agreed to go! We flew to Addis Ababa and then drove about 10 hours out to the countryside of Oromia where Mimi was raised. The people were the most loving, welcoming humans I have ever encountered in my entire life. I feel beyond blessed to have been offered this experience and will forever be changed by God’s unconditional love...”
